

McLernon Computers Innovation and Service Development (Independent) Award 2017

 Open to all pharmacies with less than 3 stores*

The McLernon Computers Innovation & Service Development Award's principal aim is to reward innovation within community pharmacy. The judging panel will be looking for ways in which a project is both innovative and successful.

This Award identifies individuals and teams working within independent community pharmacy in Ireland whose ideas or inventions have, or could lead to, improvement in the patient experience in all areas of care throughout their community.

Applications are sought from those demonstrating clear enthusiasm and commitment to the enhancement of community pharmacy in Ireland, exceptional quality above and beyond what is expected and an ability to overcome challenges in pursuit of goals.

Judges will be looking for:

- Activities that may involve pioneering new models or systems that improve pharmacists' impact as members of the healthcare team; patient safety and outcomes; patient care in general and other professional development
- Development of a system or tool for pharmacy that will directly or immediately impact patient care or the profession and/or serve as an example or template for other pharmacy professionals to follow
- Measurable benefits of your initiative. Please use financial data wherever possible (percentages, ratios, graphic images etc.), as well as other statistics to show how your project has brought added value, profits, customer satisfaction improvements, productivity increases or any other benefit relevant to this award category.

WHO CAN ENTER?

This category is open to all Pharmacists and their teams working within the independent sector. Applications can be through nominating an individual or yourself. Previous Irish Pharmacy Awards Innovation & Service Development (Independent) Award entrants, including winners, are also welcome to submit entries this year.

All entries will be judged by an independent panel of experts and the winners will be announced at the Irish Pharmacy Awards 2017 - Saturday 20 May 2017, Clayton Hotel, Burlington Road.
